

2018-2019 NTT POST-PROMOTION REVIEW PROCESS CALENDAR
COLLEGE OF THE ARTS
GEORGIA STATE UNIVERSITY

- September 28, 2018 The Office of the Dean notifies Senior Lecturers, Principal Senior Lecturers, and Senior Academic Professionals in their fifth year in rank or higher of their upcoming review. Senior Lecturer candidates who apply for promotion to Principal Senior Lecturer will be exempted from the post-promotion review.
- November 5, 2018 Candidates provide a dossier of their review materials to their director. The director reviews the materials for conformity to the college and university NTT promotion manuals and school NTT guidelines.
- November 7, 2018 The director forwards the dossier to the school's review committee — an elected committee composed of at least three faculty, which must include both tenured faculty and senior lecturers and/or principal senior lecturers. This committee will use the school's NTT faculty review guidelines to provide a written assessment of effectiveness in teaching and service to the school's director.
- December 3, 2018 The school's review committee provides its written assessment of effectiveness in teaching and service to the school's director by this date.
- January 28, 2019 The school's director completes their written assessment of the candidate's effectiveness in teaching and service, which will include an assessment of the school's need for this position. The director will forward the dossier, the review committee's report, and their comments to the Office of the Dean by this date.
- May 31, 2019 The dean provides a written assessment along with the school-level reports to the provost. The candidate will receive a copy of the dean's report.
- After the completion of all assessments A conference will be held between the chair and the faculty member to discuss the results of the review and to make further recommendations to the faculty member.
